

Curriculum vitae

Daniel J. Bernstein
djb@cr.yp.to
<http://cr.yp.to/djb.html>

2007.01.15

Date of birth: 1971.10.29, East Patchogue, New York, USA.

Citizenships: USA; Germany.

Native language: English.

Language courses: French (advanced), German, Danish.

Degrees

- 1991 B.A., Department of Mathematics, New York University.
1995 Ph.D., Department of Mathematics, University of California at Berkeley. Advisor: Hendrik W. Lenstra, Jr.

Regular faculty positions

- 1995–present Department of Mathematics, Statistics, and Computer Science, University of Illinois at Chicago. Specifically:
1995–1998 Research Assistant Professor.
1998–2001 Assistant Professor.
2001–2005 Associate Professor. (Tenured.)
2005–present Professor. (Full.)
- 2003–present Adjunct position in the Department of Computer Science, University of Illinois at Chicago. Associate Professor at first, now Professor.

Visiting appointments

- 2000 Key Senior Scientist, program in Algorithmic Number Theory, Mathematical Sciences Research Institute.
- 2004 Visiting Scholar, School of Mathematics and Statistics, University of Sydney.
- 2006 Visiting Professor, Department of Mathematics, Technical University of Denmark.
- 2006 Senior Scientific Researcher, Thematic Program on Cryptography, Fields Institute, Toronto.

Consulting

- 1993–present Various private consulting contracts.